START MADE AT BETTER PRICES

Anderson People Are Taking To the Idea of Buying Cotton at 10 Cents Per Pound

It now appears that Anderson people are going to welcome the plan to buy cotton from the farmers at the rate of 10 cents per pound, the buying to be done by individuals and for the purpose of helping with the present serious situation, created by the low price of the fleecy staple.

A good start was made in Anderson yesterday afternoon when M. N. Patterson, one of the city's well known contractors, purchased a bale of cotton from Samuel E. Gerrard, paying him 10 cents per pound. The bale weighed 465 pounds and was ginned at the Farmers' oil mill.

The plan is to call upon every man, woman and child who has the price to purchase one bale from a farmer who has not sold any of his new cotton. The bales will be stored either at the warehouse or at the home of the purchaser. Every person who buys a bale will be requested to give his name and the name of the farmer from whom he made the purchase to the chamber of commerce in order that a record of all such cases may be kept.

This movement began in Atlanta several days ago and has been enthusiastically endorsed in all sections of Georgia. Atlanta citizens have bought nearly 500 bales in one and two bale lots. It is stated that the movement has spread to Washington where senators and representatives from cotton growing states have formed an organization to buy at least one bale each.

Local people who have discussed the situation believe that 500 bales can be bought within a very short time. Only those farmers who have not sold any of this year's crop will be considered, and the plan is to buy only one bale from one farmer at 10 cents.

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER NAME

Registration Board Will Be In Session Today and Then Duties Will Be Completed

The Anderson county board of registration went into session yesterday morning at the court house, meeting in the office of the county supervisor, and during the day the board had all that it could do. One member of the board said last night that during the day about 300 certificates, new ones and renewals were issued.

Anderson county voters should bear in mind the fact that today is the last day that the board will be in session and if the voter does not get his registration certificate today he will not get one at all.

The chairman of the board announced last night that today's meeting will be held in the same room in the court house and that the board will be in session between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. today. This is the last chance.

GOOD NEWSPAPER MAN HERE

Mr. Sasseen Comes from Kentucky to Be With Intelligence (The Daily Mail)

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Sasseen and children have arrived from Henderson, Ky., to make Anderson their home. Mr. Sasseen has been connected with the Henderson Daily Gleaner as advertising manager for some time, and will hold a similar position with the Anderson Intelligencer. He is an experienced newspaper man and will be quite an addition to the Intelligencer force. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Sasseen are stopping at the Hotel Chiquola, but they have secured a new home, No. 512 North McDuffie street, and will begin housekeeping in the next few days. Both of them are already delighted with Anderson, and the people here whom they have met are delighted with them.

LOCAL DEALERS FILED PROTEST

Anderson Bottling Concerns Telegraphed Objections To Washington In Re Stamp Tax

That Anderson's bottling industries and the various proprietors of those establishments are very much opposed to any stamp tax being levied on bottled goods is indicated in no uncertain manner by a telegram yesterday. It is understood that the bill is about to become a law which will provide for a tax to be levied on all cold drinks and when this fact became known a storm of protest arose from the dealers here of the various summer drinks. They claim that such an act will be ruinous to their business and indicated that sentiment in the following telegram: Anderson, S. C. Sept. 7, 1914. Hon. B. R. Tillman, D. C. We protest against stamp tax on cold drinks. It will practically ruin our business and is a gross discrimination against the poor man and a union mill employee. Kindly use your efforts to defeat such legislation. Ralph J. Ramer, Pres. S. G. Bottling Association. Coca-Cola Company. Superior Bottling Works. J. P. Cateau, Bottler. Blue Ridge Ice Company, Bottlers. Chero-Cola Co., A. P. Spence, Pres.

GUN-FIGHTER CAUGHT AFTER A LONG CHASE

LUTHER GAINES PLACED IN JAIL HERE

SHOT BUD EARLE

Physicians Say That Wounded Negro Is In Critical Condition and Will Probably Die

After chasing Luther Gaines, a negro, over 150 miles Sunday afternoon and Sunday night, Sheriff Ashley gave up hope of getting the negro himself and so ran to spread the descriptions of the man to the other towns. He received a telegram yesterday that Gaines had been captured by the police in Lavonia, Ga., and Deputy Sheriff Williams went to the Georgia town, and secured the negro.

In a mix-up near Snow Hill church, between Townville and Fair Play, Gaines shot a negro named "Bud" Earle Saturday night. The negroes had been holding a fish fry and at a late hour the two principals in the case got into an altercation. Gaines is alleged to have left the place and gone to a near-by farm house, where he broke in and stole a shot gun, and returning to the fish fry he fired the weapon, the entire load taking effect in Earle's back. The negro is in a critical condition.

No word was received in Anderson of the affair until late Sunday afternoon and Sheriff Ashley then started on Gaines' trail. He followed him, going by automobile, for over 150 miles, traveling all night, but gave up the chase yesterday morning about daylight.

The wounded negro was brought to the Anderson county hospital and the attending physicians say that he is seriously wounded and that he will probably die.

FALL COURT IS NOW IN SESSION

Judge Memminger Opened Session Yesterday Morning But Adjourned Account Holiday

The fall term of the court of general sessions for Anderson county, convened yesterday morning with Judge Memminger presiding and the other court officials in their respective places. Immediately after court was opened yesterday his honor announced that no cases would be tried during that day because of the fact that Monday, Sept. 7, is a legal holiday. Adjournment was had until this morning.

There is some doubt about whether there will be a session of court today, owing to the fact that it is election day, but the jurors have not been excused and it is probable that court will today begin its two-weeks grind.

FIRE DESTROYED MUCH FEED STUFF

Quantity of Fodder and Hay Went Up in Smoke When Capt. Sullivan's Barn Was Burned

As the people of Williamston were returning to their homes, Sunday morning, following the fire which destroyed the city hall at that point, they noticed another blaze and within a few minutes Capt. G. W. Sullivan's large barn was in flames. Before anything could be done to save the building the barn was in roaring furnace and a few minutes later another small outbuilding caught from the main barn and the two were burned.

Capt. Sullivan succeeded in saving all of his stock before the roof of the building fell in, but he lost 2,000 bundles of fodder, twenty tons of peavine hay and a large crop of oats. It is understood that Mr. Sullivan carried only a small amount of insurance on the building but nothing like its worth. His loss will be very heavy.

In speaking of the fire, Capt. Sullivan said yesterday that the only explanation he could think of was spontaneous combustion as the fire could hardly have any other origin at that hour of the morning.

Diarthrae Quickly Cured.

"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

Miss LaBoon's friends were congratulating her yesterday on the splendid showing she made when the examination was held.

Two Sermons Were Splendid

Congregations at the First Baptist church of Anderson heard two splendid sermons Sunday. These were preached by Dr. E. M. Potat and his son, E. M. Potat, Jr. Dr. Potat spoke to a well filled church Sunday morning and his effort was one of the best that Anderson people have ever heard. The sermon delivered by his son Sunday night was equally as good and Anderson people felt that they were fortunate in being able to secure these two gentlemen for even one day.

Labor Day Was Observed Here.

Yesterday was labor day but the national holiday created no celebration in Anderson and but little attention was paid here to the day. The banks of the city were closed and the postoffice was closed but there was no celebration held. The fall term of the court of general sessions was opened by Judge Memminger but an adjournment was had within a few minutes on account of the day being a holiday.

Selling Tickets For Al's Minstrels.

Seats went on sale yesterday at the Anderson office of the Piedmont & Northern line railway for the appearance in Greenville of Al Fields minstrels. This is the first show of the season for Greenville and the first attraction that Anderson people have had an opportunity of attending and doubtless the party to go from this city on September 14 will be large. Low rates will be offered by the P. & N., and if the reservation reaches a large number it is possible that a special train will be run.

Directors Will Have Meeting Today.

Anderson men on the board of directors of the Piedmont & Northern line will go to Greenville this afternoon to attend a meeting of the board which will be held at Chick Springs tonight. There are 35 directors of the electric road and three or four of these live in Anderson. It is understood that a special dinner will be served tonight for the directors meeting and the occasion will probably be very pleasant.

Sunday Outings Were Pleasant.

Anderson people attending the band concert at Williamston Sunday afternoon say that they spent a very pleasant day at Williamston Springs. The crowd grows larger every Sunday and there were probably more people in attendance at the concert last Sunday than had been attracted to that place before. A number of Anderson people also went to High Shoals Sunday and spent the day, while others went to Chick Springs.

County Board to Meet Tomorrow.

The regular monthly meeting of the county board of commissioners will not be held today, although this is the first Tuesday in the month and the day for the meeting to take place. The change in this meeting was due to the fact that today is election day and as the members of the board have various duties to perform in connection with the election it was deemed best to postpone the meeting until tomorrow. It will be held Wednesday in the office of J. Mack King, county supervisor.

Farmers Hold Surplus Cotton.

A few bales of new cotton were received in Anderson yesterday and placed on the local market. It is said that the cotton is opening all over the county at a very rapid rate and that farmers are having their hands full in getting it picked. One of the local business men said yesterday that the farmers are selling about from what he can see, he estimates one-third or what they are picking and the remaining two-thirds goes to the warehouses.

Livestock Men Here Yesterday.

J. O. Williams and Paul H. Calvin both from the livestock department of Clemson College, came to Anderson yesterday and spent the day in this city working among the livestock raisers and considering the situation. The two gentlemen say that they are going to lend every possible assistance toward making the coming live stock exhibit in Anderson a success and they say that they expect to show to have a good effect on stock raising in this county.

Anderson Seed Go to Alabama.

An evidence of the fact that people in other states are beginning to recognize the superiority of Anderson goods, Furman Smith, the seedman, yesterday received an order from a planter in Alabama for 100 bushels of pure clover seed. Mr. Smith expects to make the shipment within the next day or so and he says that Alabama people will be impressed when they see the result of the planting. Anderson farmers are also beginning to realize that it pays to plant other things than cotton and to use only the very best seeds.
